For Immediate Release:

Zippy Bites, LLC Supports Ronald McDonald House of Central and Northern New Jersey

The Company's Zippy Bites Organic, Chocolate Energy Snacks will be Donated for Gift Bags Distributed During the Long Branch House's 4th Annual Tea Party Fundraiser on Sunday, May, 22nd

Piscataway, NJ and Long Branch, NJ – Zippy Bites, LLC a New Jersey company that formulates and manufactures a better tasting, healthier alternative to energy drinks, will be supporting the charitable efforts of Ronald McDonald House of Central and Northern New Jersey.

Specifically, the company will be supplying a generous supply of its chocolate truffles infused with natural energy for gift bags to be distributed during the non-profit organization's 4th Annual Garden Tea Party on Sunday, May 22nd, from 1-4 PM at the Ronald McDonald House located at 131 Bath Avenue in Long Branch.

The Garden Tea Party is a fund raiser that helps finance Ronald McDonald House of Central and Northern New Jersey, which provides a true "home away from home" for the families of seriously ill children who are receiving care at medical facilities near its locations in Long Branch and New Brunswick.

According to Lynne J. Siedentop, Operations Director for Ronald MacDonald House of Central and Northern New Jersey, "We greatly appreciate this generous donation of Zippy
